MCRD/ERR Parris Island Marine Wins Trip to Super Bowl in the MCCS Football Bash Promotion

HQMC (MR), QUANTICO, VA – Cpl Leah Mast was the lucky winner of the 2009 Marine Corps Community Services (MCCS) Football Bash Grand Prize – a five day/four night, all expense paid trip for two to Miami, FL to attend Super Bowl XLIV, valued at over $7,500.

This fall, MCCS clubs and restaurants across the Corps sponsored the MCCS Football Bash in an effort to get Marines into MCCS facilities for a little fun, camaraderie, and football. In all, MCCS club and restaurant patrons submitted over 60,000 raffle entries. Official event sponsors included Anheuser-Busch, AT&T, DUB, GNC, Outback Restaurant, and Tyson Foods.

As the winner of an installation Football Bash raffle, Cpl Mast was eligible for a 1 in 21 chance at the Grand Prize. Her name was drawn during a raffle on Dec. 11, 2009, at HQMC, Personnel and Family Readiness Division, aboard MCB Quantico, VA. MGySgt Raul Claudio, Marine Corps Exchange Operations Chief, drew the winning ticket.

The Grand Prize winner receives tickets for two to Super Bowl XLIV, airfare, four nights lodging, a Fuji digital camera, $500 spending money, and gift certificates to Outback Restaurant. Pvt Matthew Souza, MCB Camp Butler, won the Second Place Prize of $1,000, a set of DUB 20” custom rims, and a TomTom GPS. LCpl Terry Cross, MCAS Miramar, won the Third Place Prize of $500, a set of DUB 20” custom rims, and a Coby portable DVD player.

Be sure to ask your local MCCS club manager about current contests and promotions going on at your installation. MCCS patrons just like you do win! Don’t miss out, participate today!
